

Professional Services

WINNER: IT SERVICES

Smart Guys Computers

Locally owned and operated since 1995, Smart Guys Computers will help you buy a new computer, make sure you have all the components you need, offers remote service support, can recover lost data and much more. Using your computer for gaming? They'll make sure you have the system of your dreams.

WINNER: AD AGENCY

&Barr

This full-service advertising agency has been based in Orlando for 65 years. Its success comes from a team of thinkers and doers across creative, digital, media, social media, public relations and account services disciplines. Its diverse client roster includes Habitat for Humanity, the Automobile Association of America, Florida's Space Coast, Rosen Hotels & Resorts, Babcock Home Furniture and more.

WINNER: PR FIRM

Wing Woman Public Relations

Kristin Weissman is founder and CEO of Wing Woman Public Relations, and received top Best of ORL honors last year. She works with clients across a wide spectrum of industries: arts and entertainment, sports, education, technology, health and wellness,

©KRISTIN WEISSMAN (LEFT)

ROBERTO GONZALEZ

WINNER: COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE DEVELOPER
Ustler Development, Inc.

Ustler Development's projects are always in the news. Earlier this year, Craig Ustler was named a Downtowner of the Year for his work as co-developer of the 68-acre Creative Village. He was also honored with an award in Public Works & Placemaking for his efforts with Luminary Green. Since 2001, Ustler has been a principal and founding partner in the development of several local restaurants downtown.